Personnel records

Personnel refers to any person who works for or provides services to or on behalf of KPAL and receives or is entitled to receive any remuneration and any other person who assists in carrying out or conducting the business of KPAL. This includes, without limitation, directors, executives, non-executives, all permanent, temporary and part-time staff as well as contract workers.

Personnel records include the following:

- Any personal records provided to KPAL by their personnel;
- Any records that a third party has provided to KPAL about any of their personnel;
- Conditions of employment and other personnel-related contractual and quasi-legal records;
- Internal evaluation records; and
- Other internal records and correspondence.
Customer-related records

A customer includes any natural or juristic entity that receives services from KPAL. Customer-related information includes the following:

- Any records a customer has provided to a third party acting for or on behalf of KPAL;
- Any records a third party has provided to KPAL; and
- Records generated by or within KPAL pertaining to the customer, including transactional records.

Records pertaining to KPAL

The following are considered to include but not be limited to records that pertain to KPAL’s own affairs:

- Financial records;
- Operational records;
- Databases;
- Marketing records;
- Internal correspondence;
- Statutory records;
- Internal policies and procedures;
- Treasury-related records;
- Securities and equities; and
- Records held by officials of KPAL;
- Software and licensing agreements.

Other Parties

KPAL may possess records pertaining to other parties, including without limitation contractors, suppliers, subsidiary and associated companies, joint venture companies and service providers. Alternatively, such other parties may possess records that can be said to belong to KPAL.

The following records fall under this category:

- Personnel, customer or KPAL’s records which are held by another party as opposed to being held by KPAL; and
- Records held by KPAL pertaining to other parties, including without limitation financial records, correspondence, contractual records, records provided by the other party, and records third parties have provided about the contractors / suppliers.
